1. COMPLAINANT'S STATEMENT — FULL NARRATION

On 28-Jan-2026 at about 10:00 hrs, the complainant Shri Anil Kulkarni received a telephone call from accused Rajesh Kumar, who introduced himself as the 'Sales & Marketing Head' of M/s Nimbus Buildcon Ltd., a reputed real-estate developer. The accused claimed that Nimbus Buildcon was launching a luxury residential project called 'The Sovereign Residences' at Tardeo, Mumbai, and offered the complainant an exclusive first-right-of-refusal on four apartments for bulk booking. The complainant was lured with a fabricated 'pre-launch discount' of ₹18,00,000 per apartment, contingent on immediate advance payment.

Believing the representation, the complainant transferred ₹62,00,000 through two RTGS transactions (₹35,00,000 on 28-Jan-2026 and ₹27,00,000 on 02-Feb-2026) to the account number 50100123XXXX 67890 maintained at HDFC Bank, MIDC branch, in the name of 'Nimbus Buildcon Ltd.' On 04-Feb-2026, the complainant visited the registered office of M/s Nimbus Buildcon at Nariman Point only to discover that the company had never launched any such project, that no employee by the name of Rajesh Kumar existed, and that the alleged project brochure, RERA registration number and allotment letters were all forged documents.

A subsequent verification with HDFC Bank revealed that the beneficiary account was opened only on 10-Jan-2026 in the name of a fictitious entity, and that the entire amount had been withdrawn in cash within 48 hours of receipt through a series of five cash withdrawals of ₹12,00,000 to ₹13,00,000 each, effected at different branches. The forged RERA brochure, fake allotment letters and bank account opening documents were handed over by the complainant to the investigating officer.

2. DESCRIPTION OF ACCUSED

Accused Rajesh Kumar alias R.K., aged about 39 years, fair complexion, height approximately 5 ft 8 in, wearing a light-blue formal shirt and dark trousers at the time of meeting; speaks fluent Hindi, Marathi and English; operates through mobile number +91 98XXXX3210 and email rajesh.k.rk@gmail.com. He visited the complainant's office on three occasions (12-Jan-2026, 20-Jan-2026 and 28-Jan-2026) presenting himself with an official-looking identity card of 'Nimbus Buildcon Ltd.'. CCTV footage of the MIDC office lobby dated 28-Jan-2026 has been seized and preserved.

3. MEDICAL / FORENSIC & DOCUMENTARY EVIDENCE

The complainant handed over the following documents for forensic examination: (a) two forged RERA registration certificates bearing Registration No. P52000012345; (b) four 'allotment letters' bearing the purported signature of Nimbus Buildcon's Managing Director; (c) a coloured brochure of the fictitious 'Sovereign Residences' project; and (d) two RTGS acknowledgement receipts. All documents were sealed and forwarded to the Directorate of Forensic Science Laboratory, Kalina, for handwriting and digital forensic examination vide forwarding letter dated 05-Feb-2026.

4. WITNESSES TO THE INCIDENT / CUSTODY AND FURTHER ACTION

The following witnesses were identified during the preliminary inquiry: (1) Shri Sunil Jadhav, reception staff, MIDC office, who received the accused on his visits; (2) Shri Deepak Rane, office accountant, who witnessed the discussion of 28-Jan-2026; and (3) Shri Mohd.
